

Events Team - Various Roles

Still Sisters is driven by our passion for creating a community of people who love great drinks, bringing people and businesses together through collaborative working, inclusivity, and fun and creative experiences.

We have several event roles to fulfil this Summer through to December. From Christmas markets, festivals and food shows at various locations.

We are looking for lone workers to run events. £15 per hour to cover local markets and events. A van for transport will be provided.

We have other various roles available where you will be working with other team members these roles are paid £10.50 per hour.

Required to set up at events, unloading and setting up of stand. Must be able to lift and carry boxes of up to 15kg over short distances and be happy to use a sack trolley if required.

Key Responsibilities:

- Greeting customers
- Inspecting equipment after/before event/against an inventory list
- Setting up venue/equipment

- Ensuring stand arrangement
- Payment collection
- Ensuring organization and cleanliness
- Serving drinks
- Undertaking security duties
- Ensuring high levels of customer service
- Liaise with sales and retail teams to pick, and pack stock and equipment for promotional/retail events

We are a small collaborative, fun team based at our working distillery in Frome. We are seeking an individual who wants to get stuck in! This role is very varied but will require a flexible and can-do approach! Gin knowledge is optional, as full training will be provided.

Requirements:

- Attention to detail and accuracy
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Great customer service
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Strong customer service skills
- High energy levels and enthusiasm
- Good organisational skills
- Diligence and attention to detail
- Ability to communicate effectively and in a friendly manner
- Ability to follow written and/or oral instructions
- Ability to solve problems under pressure
- Ability to stay calm in fast-paced situations
- Ability to work a varying schedule in terms of days and hours
- Current driving licence

Physical Requirements:

The job requires standing for long periods, walking and lifting heavy boxes/cases of Gin.

For all enquiries, please contact us at hello@stillsisters.co.uk or pop in to see us at the distillery; alternatively, please call us on 01373 474647.